WHY BEST

The Learning Principles at BEST

BEST believes in 3 principles of learning and shaping the future.

- Learning by doing things and interacting with the progressive world-education, beyond the books which will be fruitful for the pupils in tomorrow's world.
- Learning with interactive multimedia & digital interfaces installed in all of our "digital" class rooms - that has transformed basic concepts of learning & education to playful and interactive learning.
- Nurturing with books apart from text books - as we teach children the art of loving books. It is crucial to integrate new teaching & learning approaches that enable the development of critical & creative thinking in the school curriculum. Teaching & learning must be more active, connected to real life & designed with each student & their unique qualities in mind. We are very careful to create in them the confidence for living with great values, culture & civic sense.

I always feel proud to be a part of the BES EMS Satana. BES EMS has always nurtured extra-curricular activities along with the formal education thus building a generation of leaders with strong morale. The BES EMS discipline system has helped to mold a strong professional character in me. The solid encouragement for sports, brought lots of enthusiasm during my school days, I still cherish those moments. BES EMS also gave me a strong network of exceptional friends, am very happy that they are winning many laurels in their career, bringing glory to our alma mater. I am also very happy that the school is doing very well and has become the first choice in Satana. And I wish lots of success for BES EMS in the future.

Mr. Vivek Kapadnis

I was a crude and raw child who never had any idea of the strong foundation the school had built for me. I realized this when I was exposed to international platform. I owe it to my wonderful teachers and colleagues who shaped me in the person that I am today. I have been engaged in social entrepreneurship since two decades through my units namely Horizon group, Alligo Agrovet and Dharti with corporate office in Nasik and plants in Dindori area. I have completed engineering from VJTI and MBA from Pune University. I left job and established my own agrochemical business. I exported grapes, pomegranates and onion to Germany, Russia, South-East Asia and gulf. My unit became chemical supplier throughout India within three years without prior experience. I won patents for organic fungicide and larvicide. Dharti foundation looks after education and welfare of the children of farmers who committed suicide

We have distinguished faculties and equipments to execute these activities.

B) Expeditions & field - Power generation lesson lacks luminance when learnt from a text book. So we visited sardar sarovar and also koyana dam to teach power Generation. E) Participation in State & National level Competitions and Exams : The school facilitates & prepares for various state level competitions like Dr. Homi Bhabha Child scientist competition, Music, Karate, Boxing, Drawing, Skating, Debates & Speech, competitions. Our students have won many accolades each year. The school also prepares & guides students for various Govt. examinations like Scholarship, Hindi RashtraBhasha, English & Drawing grade examinations and Olympiad for Science, Mathematics, English & Computer. NTS, MTS and Fiitjee exams.

F) Culture : We believe in quest for humanness in human being. Children celebrate Various festivals in school to broaden their minds. By developing love & respect for variety of cultures we groom them to be true Indians. The children are taught prayers, songs and stories from epics to familiarize them with Indian culture, Heritage, value system & to inculcate in them a strong moral character.

Schooling and parenting in tandem :

Science has proven that the role of school and parents in bringing up young agile minds is equally vital. At a tender age if a child misses the love and care of the parents while studying at boarding schools there is bound to be a void in the life of the child that parents can't perceive. At the same time parents are often in denial of the golden moments that they miss with their child. It does take a toll on both.

Recognizing this we have launched a conscious effort to partner with the parents in grooming the child. Each one of our parent actively participates in various expeditions of the school. Our parents are very happy that they haven't deprived their child of the parental love and care by putting the child at a hostel because they have a great education resource available nearby in the form of BEST.
